

Honor Bands for 2018-2019 (1.0)

Colleges and Universities around the midwest host high school honor bands as an opportunity for high school students to be nominated/audition for a high performing music ensemble. Each event includes a day or more of music making, work with professional clinicians and soloists, and culminates in a concert with the participating students. Listed below is basic information about each of the local honor bands and those popular with JHS students in the past. Note that most events include a registration/audition fee that ranges from $15-$30.

Please contact Mr.Burnside if you are interested in one or more of these honor bands.
